

NO! Do not allow telemarketing of any sort to folks on the "no call" list. It is an invasion of my privacy and an extreme annoyance. We have been on the no call list since its inception and still get numerous machine-dialed calls during the week. We come home from work to find three to five messages. On a good day, one is legitimate.

Let's see: junk mail, billboards, endless TV commercials, commercials on the movie screen after paying $8.50 for a ticket, signs over the urinals when I try to relieve myself!

I think the marketing hacks have more than enough shots at us already.
